THE DAILY NEWS.

The following poem was awarded the prize of $100 late'y offered by the proprietors of the "Herth and Home:"

The Kingdom of Home. Dark is the night, and fitful and diearily
Bushes the wind like the waves of the sea;
Little care I, as here I sing cheerily.
Wife at my side and my taby or knee;
King, Kng, crown me the King;
Home is the King, om and Love is the King!

Flashes the firelight up in the dear faces,
Dearer and dearer as onward we go,
Forces the shadow behind us, and places
Brightness sround us with warmth in the glow.
King. King. crown me the Kina;
Home is the Kingdom and Love is the King!

Flashes the lovelight, increasing the g'ory,
Beaming from bright cys with warmth soul, elling of trust and content the sweet story, Litting the shadows that over us roll, King, bing, crown me the King / Home u the Kingdom and Love is the King /

Richer than miser with perishing treasure, herred with a service no conquest could bring; Bappy with fortune that words cannot measure, Light-he reed to not he hearthstone can sing, King, King, crown me the King!

Howe is the Kingd.m and Love is the king! WM. BANKIN DURYEE.

PROPHITT'S LIVER MEDICINE.

Dr. Prophitt—Having used this medicine sufficiently long to test its virtue, and to satisfy my own mind that it is an invaluable remedy for Dyspepsia—a disease from which the writer has suffered much for six years—and being persuaded that hundreds who now suffer from this annoying complaint would be signally benefitted, as he has been, by its use, we deem it a duty we owe to this unfortunate class to recommend to them the use of this remedy which has given not only himself but several members of his family the greatest relief.

M. W. ARNOLD,

DOOLY COUNTY, GA, April, 1867.

This is to certify that I was confined to the house, and most of the time to my bed, and suffering the greatest agony imaginable with Rheumatism, for two months, and after trying every available remedy, with no relief, I was cured with two bottles of Dr. O. S. Prophitt's Anodyne Pain Kill It, each coeting fity cents only; it relieved me almost instantly. I therefore recommend it in the highest degree to others suffering from similar disease. I can say that it is one of the best family medicines now only, certain. Yours truly, W. A. FOREHAND. Yours truly,

PUTNAM COUNTY, GA, September 22, 1868.

Br. O. S. Prophtt—rir—I have used for the last two years in my family you. Liver Medicine, your Pain Kill It, and you. Female Tonic, and I have no fears in saying that they are the best medicines I have ever used for the Liver and Stomach. Neuralgo and Rhumasic afflictions, Headachs, Colic, and pains of every kind are subdued by them. After using the medicines so long, I cheerfully recommend them to any and every one, and to all that are afflicted, as the best and safest remedies for all the diseases for which they are recommended, &c.

Yours respectfully, JAMES WRIGHT.
